FRONE END – PART 1
COMPLETING RESUME

Create Experience Timeline Divider

The resume is almost complete and now that we have started with the 'Work Experience' section, your task is to try building the timeline divider.

The hints were provided in the previous video. You can take help from that video and can even try to complete this section.

The borders provided in the image below, is just to visualize the boxes and will be removed when adding the content to them.
